TERMS AND CONDITIONS

All portions of the Competition, including but not limited to the exhibition, media, oral presentations, and question/answer sessions, are open to the public at large and to the media. Any and all of these public sessions may be recorded and broadcast to the general public and specific persons or groups through various media, which may include radio, television, and the Internet. Any data or information discussed or divulged in public sessions by entrants should be considered information that will likely enter the public realm, and entrants should not assume any right of confidentiality for any data or information discussed, divulged or presented in these sessions.

The Organisers may make printed copies, photocopies, photographs, video and/or audio recordings of the presentations, including the entries and other documents, charts or material prepared for use in presentations at the Competition.

Applicants retain all proprietary rights.

The Organisers may use the entry materials and recordings in any print, electronic, video, or other medium that it may choose.

The Organisers reserve non-exclusive, world-wide rights in all languages, and in all media, to use or to publish the materials in any print, electronic, video, or other medium, and to use the materials in future editions thereof and in derivative products.

Please note that winners of the entrepreneurship competition will be expected to give a mandatory annual amount of 10% of their business equity, back to the Entrepreneurship Challenge.
